Mr. Steve Redzepagic, Superintendent
4750 Bedford Avenue
Brooklyn, New York

Dear Steve:

We have several items to take up with you, including some disturbing reports of lax behavior.

!. John and Besim have proposed switching positions. This is absolutely out of the question. John cannot serve effectively as a door man.

2. Tenants report that John takes enormous breaks and sits and watches TV and smokes for five or six long breaks during the working day. Because of this abuse, the TV is to be removed immediately from the Porter's room. Secondly, warn John that if he is ever caught smoking on the premises, he will be summarily dismissed. Also warn John that he is not entitled to the number and duration of the breaks he is taking.

3. Tenants say that Castro makes too much noise taking the garbage out. He bangs the cart going down the step as he leaves the building and he bangs the shed doors unnecessarily. Besim does not do this, so why does Castro? Please warn Castro to be quiet, or face disciplinary action.

4. Tenants also complain that you leave the building for longer periods of time than you did previously to get supplies etc. and that you come late and leave early. If there is any truth to this, please correct the situation immediately.

Best regards.

Yours truly,

Robert John Hammer
